

THREE NEW BOOKS OF SCRIPTURE

from
The Society of St. John Chrysostom
 The Orientale Lumen Foundation and Eastern Christian Publications

with the blessing of Metropolitan Kallistos of Diokleia and Bishop John Michael Botean

Eastern Christian Publications is pleased to announce a new ecumenical collection of three books of Apostolic and Old Testament readings. Keyed to the calendar of both the Eastern Catholic and Eastern Orthodox Churches, these Revised Standard Version texts are available in a Deluxe edition— printed in two colors with leatherette binding – and an Economy edition – black and white with paperback binding. All books are 6”x9” in size.

Book of Apostolic Readings: Epistles for the Divine Liturgy – the texts of daily epistle readings for the liturgical year according to the Byzantine Typicon (~300 pages)

Book of Prophetic Readings: Old Testament Readings for Vespers – the texts for Sundays, Feasts and for saints according to the Byzantine Typicon (~400 pages)

Book of Thematic Readings: Old Testament Readings Relating to the Sunday Gospels – a brand new collection of Old Testament readings for Great Vespers which match the theme of the Sunday Gospel or Feast, including the corresponding Gospel text (~200 pages)

These editions were compiled by Father Mark Shuey of the Ukrainian Catholic Church (Apostolic and Prophetic) and Father Theodore Pulcini of the Antiochian Orthodox Church (Thematic) for use in their own parishes. They are now being published through the combined blessing of Metropolitan Kallistos of Diokleia and Bishop John Michael Botean, co-patrons of the Society of St. John Chrysostom in the U.S. and the Orientale Lumen Foundation and Conferences.
